

Crockett Boy Sp
F1-16-12

October 11, 1984

Dear Senator Cranston:

I am writing to express my sincere appreciation to you for your courageous support of Senate Resolution 386, the "Mandela Freedom Resolution," which was approved by the Senate on Wednesday, October 10, 1984.

Senate approval of this Resolution, following House passage of an identical Resolution on September 18, 1984, firmly places the Congress of the United States on record in solidarity with prisoners of conscience in South Africa and in opposition to the apartheid regime's persistent and flagrant violations of the black majority's civil, political and human rights.

I am confident that our future concerted efforts in the House and the Senate will lead to further impressive and important victories against injustice and oppression.

With best regards,

Sincerely,

Geo. W. Crockett, Jr.
Member of Congress

Honorable Alan Cranston
United States Senate
Washington, D.C. 20510

GWC:ab

MANDELA FILE

October 11, 1984

Dear Senator Bumpers:

I am writing to express my sincere appreciation to you for your courageous support of Senate Resolution 386, the "Mandela Freedom Resolution," which was approved by the Senate on Wednesday, October 10, 1984.

Senate approval of this Resolution, following House passage of an identical Resolution on September 18, 1984, firmly places the Congress of the United States on record in solidarity with prisoners of conscience in South Africa and in opposition to the apartheid regime's persistent and flagrant violations of the black majority's civil, political and human rights.

I am confident that our future concerted efforts in the House and the Senate will lead to further impressive and important victories against injustice and oppression.

With best regards,

Sincerely,

Geo. W. Crockett, Jr.
Member of Congress

Honorable Dale Bumpers
United States Senate
Washington, D.C. 20510

MANDELA FILE

GWC:ab

October 11, 1984

Dear Senator Riegle:

I am writing to express my sincere appreciation to you for your courageous support of Senate Resolution 386, the "Mandela Freedom Resolution," which was approved by the Senate on Wednesday, October 10, 1984.

Senate approval of this Resolution, following House passage of an identical Resolution on September 18, 1984, firmly places the Congress of the United States on record in solidarity with prisoners of conscience in South Africa and in opposition to the apartheid regime's persistent and flagrant violations of the black majority's civil, political and human rights.

I am confident that our future concerted efforts in the House and the Senate will lead to further impressive and important victories against injustice and oppression.

With best regards,

Sincerely,

Geo. W. Crockett, Jr.
Member of Congress

Honorable Donald W. Riegle
United States Senate
Washington, D.C. 20510

GWC:ab

MANDELA FILE

October 11, 1984

Dear Senator Kennedy:

I am writing to express my sincere appreciation to you for your courageous support of Senate Resolution 386, the "Mandela Freedom Resolution," which was approved by the Senate on Wednesday, October 10, 1984.

Senate approval of this Resolution, following House passage of an identical Resolution on September 18, 1984, firmly places the Congress of the United States on record in solidarity with prisoners of conscience in South Africa and in opposition to the apartheid regime's persistent and flagrant violations of the black majority's civil, political and human rights.

I am confident that our future concerted efforts in the House and the Senate will lead to further impressive and important victories against injustice and oppression.

With best regards,

Sincerely,

Geo. W. Crockett, Jr.
Member of Congress

Honorable Edward M. Kennedy
United States Senate
Washington, D.C. 20510

GWC:ab

MANDELA FILE

October 11, 1984

Dear Senator Tsongas:

I am writing to express my sincere appreciation to you for your courageous support of Senate Resolution 386, the "Mandela Freedom Resolution," which was approved by the Senate on Wednesday, October 10, 1984.

Senate approval of this Resolution, following House passage of an identical Resolution on September 18, 1984, firmly places the Congress of the United States on record in solidarity with prisoners of conscience in South Africa and in opposition to the apartheid regime's persistent and flagrant violations of the black majority's civil, political and human rights.

I am confident that our future concerted efforts in the House and the Senate will lead to further impressive and important victories against injustice and oppression.

With best regards,

Sincerely,

Geo. W. Crockett, Jr.
Member of Congress

Honorable Paul E. Tsongas
United States Senate
Washington, D.C. 20510

MANDELA FILE

GWC:ab

October 11, 1984

Dear Senator Dixon:

I am writing to express my sincere appreciation to you for your courageous support of Senate Resolution 386, the "Mandela Freedom Resolution," which was approved by the Senate on Wednesday, October 10, 1984.

Senate approval of this Resolution, following House passage of an identical Resolution on September 18, 1984, firmly places the Congress of the United States on record in solidarity with prisoners of conscience in South Africa and in opposition to the apartheid regime's persistent and flagrant violations of the black majority's civil, political and human rights.

I am confident that our future concerted efforts in the House and the Senate will lead to further impressive and important victories against injustice and oppression.

With best regards,

Sincerely,

Geo. W. Crockett, Jr.
Member of Congress

Honorable Alan J. Dixon
United States Senate
Washington, D.C. 20510

MANDELA FILE

GWC:ab

October 11, 1984

Dear Senator Sarbanes:

I am writing to express my sincere appreciation to you for your courageous support of Senate Resolution 386, the "Mandela Freedom Resolution," which was approved by the Senate on Wednesday, October 10, 1984.

Senate approval of this Resolution, following House passage of an identical Resolution on September 18, 1984, firmly places the Congress of the United States on record in solidarity with prisoners of conscience in South Africa and in opposition to the apartheid regime's persistent and flagrant violations of the black majority's civil, political and human rights.

I am confident that our future concerted efforts in the House and the Senate will lead to further impressive and important victories against injustice and oppression.

With best regards,

Sincerely,

Geo. W. Crockett, Jr.
Member of Congress

Honorable Paul S. Sarbanes
United States Senate
Washington, D.C. 20510

MANDELA FILE

GWC:ab

October 11, 1984

Dear Senator Lautenberg:

I am writing to express my sincere appreciation to you for your courageous support of Senate Resolution 386, the "Mandela Freedom Resolution," which was approved by the Senate on Wednesday, October 10, 1984.

Senate approval of this Resolution, following House passage of an identical Resolution on September 18, 1984, firmly places the Congress of the United States on record in solidarity with prisoners of conscience in South Africa and in opposition to the apartheid regime's persistent and flagrant violations of the black majority's civil, political and human rights.

I am confident that our future concerted efforts in the House and the Senate will lead to further impressive and important victories against injustice and oppression.

With best regards,

Sincerely,

Geo. W. Crockett, Jr.
Member of Congress

Honorable Frank R. Lautenberg
United States Senate
Washington, D.C. 20510

MANDELA FILE

GWC:ab

October 11, 1984

Dear Senator Boschwitz:

I am writing to express my sincere appreciation to you for your courageous support of Senate Resolution 386, the "Mandela Freedom Resolution," which was approved by the Senate on Wednesday, October 10, 1984.

Senate approval of this Resolution, following House passage of an identical Resolution on September 18, 1984, firmly places the Congress of the United States on record in solidarity with prisoners of conscience in South Africa and in opposition to the apartheid regime's persistent and flagrant violations of the black majority's civil, political and human rights.

I am confident that our future concerted efforts in the House and the Senate will lead to further impressive and important victories against injustice and oppression.

With best regards,

Sincerely,

Geo. W. Crockett, Jr.
Member of Congress

Honorable Rudy Boschwitz
United States Senate
Washington, D.C. 20510

GWC:ab

MANDELA FILE

October 11, 1984

Dear Senator Kassebaum:

I am writing to express my sincere appreciation to you for your courageous support of Senate Resolution 386, the "Mandela Freedom Resolution," which was approved by the Senate on Wednesday, October 10, 1984.

Senate approval of this Resolution, following House passage of an identical Resolution on September 18, 1984, firmly places the Congress of the United States on record in solidarity with prisoners of conscience in South Africa and in opposition to the apartheid regime's persistent and flagrant violations of the black majority's civil, political and human rights.

I am confident that our future concerted efforts in the House and the Senate will lead to further impressive and important victories against injustice and oppression.

With best regards,

Sincerely,

Geo. W. Crockett, Jr.
Member of Congress

Honorable Nancy Landon Kassebaum
United States Senate
Washington, D.C. 20510

GWC:ab

MANDELA FILE

October 11, 1984

Dear Senator Percy:

I am writing to express my sincere appreciation to you for your courageous support of Senate Resolution 386, the "Mandela Freedom Resolution," which was approved by the Senate on Wednesday, October 10, 1984.

Senate approval of this Resolution, following House passage of an identical Resolution on September 18, 1984, firmly places the Congress of the United States on record in solidarity with prisoners of conscience in South Africa and in opposition to the apartheid regime's persistent and flagrant violations of the black majority's civil, political and human rights.

I am confident that our future concerted efforts in the House and the Senate will lead to further impressive and important victories against injustice and oppression.

With best regards,

Sincerely,

Geo. W. Crockett, Jr.
Member of Congress

Honorable Charles H. Percy
United States Senate
Washington, D.C. 20510

GWC:ab

MANDELA RES. FILE

October 11, 1984

Dear Senator Hatfield:

I am writing to express my sincere appreciation to you for your courageous support of Senate Resolution 386, the "Mandela Freedom Resolution," which was approved by the Senate on Wednesday, October 10, 1984.

Senate approval of this Resolution, following House passage of an identical Resolution on September 18, 1984, firmly places the Congress of the United States on record in solidarity with prisoners of conscience in South Africa and in opposition to the apartheid regime's persistent and flagrant violations of the black majority's civil, political and human rights.

I am confident that our future concerted efforts in the House and the Senate will lead to further impressive and important victories against injustice and oppression.

With best regards,

Sincerely,

Geo. W. Crockett, Jr.
Member of Congress

Honorable Mark O. Hatfield
United States Senate
Washington, D.C. 20510

GWC:ab

MANDELA RES. FILE