CONGRESSWOMAN CORRINE BROWN TO HOST
STOP FORECLOSURE AND SAVE YOUR HOME WORKSHOP

(ORLANDO) – On Saturday, November 17th, from 9 a.m. to noon, on Saturday, November 17th, 2007, at the Dr. James R. Smith Center at 1723 Bruton Blvd., in Orlando, Florida, Congresswoman Corrine Brown will host a housing workshop for area residents. In attendance will be a group of banks and credit unions, credit counselors, city officials, and other non profit organizations to assist Central Florida residents who are struggling to avoid foreclosure on their homes because of the nation's housing crisis and predatory lending.

Representatives from area financial institutions, credit counseling agencies, and other home ownership agencies will be available to offer free, one-on-one help to residents facing eviction and/or foreclosure. Area agencies will offer assistance and information on refinancing current high interest or adjustable rate mortgages.

For further information contact the Orlando District Office at 407-872-0656.
