Congresswoman Corrine Brown to Host Foreclosure Workshop in Jacksonville

(Washington) On Saturday, March 28th, from 8:00 am to noon at the Beaver Street Enterprises Center in Jacksonville, Florida, Congresswoman Corrine Brown will host a Foreclosure Prevention workshop for area residents.

In attendance will be a group of lenders, Servicers, Housing and Urban Development (HUD) certified counseling agencies, attorneys, and other non-profit organizations to assist North Florida residents who are struggling to avoid foreclosure on their homes because of the nation's housing crisis and predatory lending.

Lenders and Servicers will be on hand to offer loan modifications on existing loans. Representatives from HUD certified counseling agencies and other home ownership agencies will be available to offer free, one-on-one help to residents facing foreclosure. Homeowners can pre-register online at www.wealthwatchersfl.com, or by calling Congresswoman Brown's Jacksonville office at 904-354-1652 or Wealth Watchers Inc. at 904-380-0292. "I am certain that this workshop will provide attendees with invaluable information that will aid them in improving their loan terms," said Congresswoman Brown.
