AMENDMENTS

Under clause 6 of rule XXIII, proposed amendments were submitted as follows:

H.R. 4868

By Mr. BURTON of Indiana:

—In section 5(b), insert the following after paragraph (2): "No such assistance may be used to support, directly or indirectly, the African National Congress or any organization or institution affiliated therewith, until such time as the controlling body of the African National Congress no longer includes members of the South African Communist Party."

—Insert the following after section 7 and redesignate the succeeding sections and references thereto, accordingly:

SEC. 8. EXEMPTION FOR CERTAIN COMPANIES.

(a) EXEMPTION FOR COMPANIES COMPLYING WITH SULLIVAN PRINCIPLES.—The prohibitions contained in this Act shall not apply with respect to any business enterprise located in South Africa which, in the operation of that business enterprise, implements those principles set forth in subsection (b).

(b) STATEMENT OF PRINCIPLES.—The principles referred to in subsection (a) are the following:

(1) DESEGREGATING THE RACES.—Desegregating the races in each employment facility, including—

(A) removing all race designation signs;

(B) desegregating all eating, rest, and work facilities; and

(C) terminating all regulations which are based on racial discrimination.

(2) EQUAL EMPLOYMENT.—Providing equal employment for all employees with regard to race or ethnic origin, including—

(A) assuring that any health, accident, or death benefit plans that are established are nondiscriminatory and open to all employees without regard to race or ethnic origin; and

(B)(i) implementing equal and nondiscriminatory terms and conditions of employment for all employees, and (ii) abolishing job reservations, job fragmentation, apprenticeship restrictions for blacks and other nonwhites, and differential employment criteria, which discriminate on the basis of race or ethnic origin.

(3) EQUITABLE PAY SYSTEM.—Assuring that the pay system is equitably applied to all employees without regard to race or ethnic origin, including—

(A) assuring that any wage and salary structure that is implemented is applied equally to all employees without regard to race or ethnic origin;

(B) eliminating any distinctions between hourly and salaried job classifications on the basis of race or ethnic origin; and

(C) eliminating any inequities in seniority and in-grade benefits which are based on race or ethnic origin.

(4) MINIMUM WAGE AND SALARY STRUCTURE.—Establishing a minimum wage and salary structure based on the appropriate local minimum economic level which takes into account the needs of employees and their families.

(5) INCREASING BLACKS AND OTHER NONWHITES IN CERTAIN JOBS.—Increasing, by appropriate means, the number of blacks and other nonwhites in managerial, supervisory, administrative, clerical, and technical jobs for the purpose of significantly increasing the representation of blacks and other nonwhites in such jobs, including—

(A) developing training programs that will prepare substantial numbers of blacks and other nonwhites for such jobs as soon as possible, including—

(i) expanding programs and forming new programs to train, upgrade, and improve the skills of all categories of employees, including establishing and expanding programs to enable employees to further their education and skills at recognized education facilities; and

(ii) creating on-the-job training programs and facilities to assist employees to advance to higher paying jobs requiring greater skills; (B) establishing procedures to assess, identify, and actively recruit employees with potential for further advancement;

(C) identifying blacks and other nonwhites with high management potential and enrolling them in accelerated management programs; and

(D) establishing timetables to carry out this paragraph.

(6) IMPROVING LIFE OUTSIDE THE WORKPLACE.—Taking reasonable steps to improve the quality of employees lives outside the work environment with respect to housing, transportation, schooling, recreation, and health, including—

(A) providing assistance to black and other nonwhite employees for housing, health care, transportation, and recreation either through the provision of facilities or services or providing financial assistance to employees for such purposes, including the expansion or creation of in-house medical facilities or other medical programs to improve medical care for black and other nonwhite employees and their dependents; and

(B) participating in the development of programs that address the education needs of employees, their dependents, and the local community.

(7) FAIR LABOR PRACTICES.—Implementing fair labor practices, including—

(A) recognizing the right of all employees, regardless of racial or other distinctions, to self-organization and to form, join, or assist labor organizations, freely and without penalty or reprisal, and recognizing the right to refrain from any such activity;

(B) refraining from—

(i) interfering with, restraining, or coercing employees in the exercise of their rights of self-organization under this paragraph.

(ii) dominating or interfering with the formation or administration of any labor organization or sponsoring, controlling, or contributing financial or other assistance to it, except that an employer may permit employees to confer with the employer during working hours without loss of time or pay.

(iii) encouraging or discouraging membership in any labor organization by discrimination in regard to hiring, tenure, promotion, or other condition of employment.

(iv) discharging or otherwise disciplining or discriminating against any employee who has exercised any rights of self-organization under this paragraph; and

(v) refusing to bargain collectively with any organization freely chosen by employees under this paragraph; and

(C)(i) allowing employees to exercise rights of self-organization, including solicitation of fellow employees during nonworking hours, (ii) allowing distribution and posting of union literature by employees during nonworking hours in nonworking areas, and (iii) allowing reasonable access to labor organization representatives to communicate with employees on employer premises at reasonable times where there are no other available channels which will enable the labor organization to communicate with employees through reasonable efforts.

(8) ACTIVITIES OUTSIDE THE WORKPLACE.—Taking reasonable measures to extend the scope of influence on activities outside the workplace, including—

(A) supporting the unrestricted rights of black businesses to locate in urban areas;

(B) influencing other companies in South Africa to follow the standards of equal rights principles;

(C) supporting the freedom of mobility of black workers to seek employment opportunities wherever they exist, and making provision for adequate housing for families of employees within the proximity of workers' employment; and

(D) supporting the repeal of all apartheid laws.

—Insert the following after section 7 and redesignate the succeeding sections, and references thereto, accordingly:

AMENDMENTS

Under clause 6 of rule XXIII, proposed amendments were submitted as follows:

H.R. 4613

By Mr. ENGLISH:

—On page 12 following line 22, insert a new subparagraph (e) as follows:

"(e) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this Act or any rule, regulation or order of the Commission, any state may adopt any statute, rule, regulation, or order to prohibit, in that state, the offer, sale, or confirmation of any transaction described in subsection (a) and permitted under subsection (b). Notwithstanding any other provision of this Act, any state may enforce any state statute, rule, regulation or order adopted in accordance with this subsection against any person in a state court or administrative proceeding."

H.R. 5052

By Mr. HAMILTON:

—Strike out title II (as added to the bill pursuant to the rule) and insert in lieu thereof the following:

TITLE II

UNITED STATES POLICY IN CENTRAL AMERICA

Sec. 201. (a) The primary objectives of United States policy in Central America should be—

- (1) to preserve the security of the United States;
- (2) to prevent the Soviet Union and its allies from seeking to destabilize the region or to develop or deploy an offensive military capability which directly threatens the United States;
- (3) to achieve peace and reconciliation;
- (4) to promote stability and economic development;
- (5) to promote the observance of human rights and the strengthening of democratic processes; and
- (6) to live at peace with Nicaragua so long as Nicaragua lives at peace with its neighbors.

(b) United States strategy for achieving the objectives stated in subsection (a) should include—

- (1) an emphasis on seeking a negotiated, regional settlement;
- (2) respect for the independence and territorial integrity of all nations;
- (3) a clear commitment, through appropriate types and levels of military and economic assistance, to assist the nations of Central America in building and sustaining viable, democratic societies capable of withstanding aggression and subversion and of providing their people with an opportunity for better lives; and
- (4) consistent diplomatic support on behalf of the observance of human rights by groups and governments, and support for democratic institutions throughout the region, in recognition of the fact that subversion feeds on repression.

(c) In furtherance of the objectives stated in subsection (a), United States policy with respect to Nicaragua should include the following:

(1) A commitment to preserve the security of the United States by preventing the Soviet Union and its allies from developing or deploying an offensive military capability in Central America that directly threatens the United States.

(2) A commitment to protect the security and territorial integrity of any nation of Central America in conformance with the Charter of the Organization of American States and the Inter-American Treaty of
