June 24, 1986

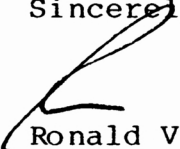

Dear George,

I want to thank you for your help and support in the effort to pass full sanctions against South Africa.

I know each of us will treasure this victory, not just for the legislative success, but particularly for what it means to the people of South Africa.

Your support is particularly meaningful because you embraced principle and made it practical.

Sincerely,

Ronald V. Dellums

Hon. George W. Crockett, Jr.
