Re: Endorsement of Sullivan Principles on Labor
Practices in South Africa

Dear Reverend Sullivan:

Wang Laboratories, Inc. supplies computer systems, as well as related products and services, to the worldwide information processing marketplace. While Wang Laboratories, Inc. has no operations, employees or assets in South Africa, our Company does recognize the importance of the Sullivan Principles, which deal with labor practices of companies operating in that country.

I am, therefore, pleased to advise you that Wang Laboratories, Inc. endorses the Sullivan Principles. Our Company believes that any business operations in South Africa should be conducted consistent with those Principles. It is our hope that our endorsement of and commitment to the Sullivan Principles will assist you in the important work you have undertaken.

Very truly yours,
